The Priest's House welcomes families, groups and visitors of all ages...

Our displays reveal the story of East Dorset and are rich in local history, archaeology, costume and childhood objects. Period rooms show how life and work has changed in this historic townhouse.

Visitors will discover:

- Stunning Roman wall paintings and a unique Victorian Valentine card collection.
- A Victorian kitchen with working range.

- The East Dorset Villages Gallery with Victorian schoolroom and village street.
- A tranquil walled garden, with heritage fruit trees and a glimpse of the river Allen.
- Gift shop.
- The Garden Tea Room, serving refreshing drinks, delicious cakes, cream teas and light savoury snacks.
- The Hilda Coles Open Learning Centre (supported by the Heritage Lottery Fund), which provides a multi-purpose learning and community space, and is available to hire (please contact the museum for details).
